

Lone Star Chapter of ICC

Membership Application

The Lone Star Chapter of ICC was organized to unite with other departments of Texas municipalities in order to bring together and achieve a more efficient and knowledgeable understanding of the building industry.

The Lone Star Chapter of ICC strives to meet the needs, concerns, and problems of its members in a variety of ways.

Standards - to establish higher standards of uniformity and efficiency in administering and enforcing model building codes and related ordinances. To create a more practical knowledge of modern building materials and technology.

Public Relations - to create and establish better public relations and understanding at the local level of the inspection department with the citizens of their community, in order to secure safe structures and buildings for the public safety and protection of life, health, and property.

Education - To encourage all inspectors of Building Inspection Departments to attend and participate in all training schools and educational programs sponsored by BOAT, state agencies, and model code groups.

Certifications - To encourage all inspectors to become certified in order to achieve a high level of code enforcement universally throughout the state.

Professional Development – Through its activities and services, the Lone Star Chapter of ICC officers encourage and help all members to enhance, expand, and cultivate their professional abilities.

Membership Benefits

Public Relations – As more and more building officials join the Lone Star Chapter of ICC, we can increase public awareness of the industry and its importance in the community. Membership in the Lone Star Chapter of ICC is a way to show pride in your profession to the community.

Code Development Opportunities – Through interaction and membership in the ICC, members have enhanced opportunities to participate and impact the development of today’s codes.

Eligibility

The Lone Star Chapter of ICC membership consists of two categories: Active and Associate members.

Active – A person who represents a municipal government. All employees of the member city may receive member rates on educational training offered by the Lone Star Chapter of ICC, may apply for the Lone Star Chapter of ICC scholarship, and may serve on the Lone Star Chapter of ICC committees.

Associate – An associate member may be any person affiliated with the code organizations, technical organizations, and industrial organizations, all of which shall be related to codes or code regulated industries.
